VISION

FOR CAMEROON'S FUTURE AND CONSTITUTIONAL REFORM

SURVEY REPORT

PROJECT CAMEROON

INTRODUCTION TO THE “ONCE AND FOR ALL” CAMPAIGN

is a nationwide effort inviting all Cameroonians —inside and abroad— to share their vision for the country.

It focuses on building a united Cameroon through inclusive constitutional reform.

PURPOSE OF THE SURVEYS

- Capture citizens' views on identity, governance, and social equity.
- Gather opinions on constitutional protections for languages and cultures.
- Identify priorities for development and democracy.
- Understand perspectives on resolving the Anglophone Crisis.
- Measure trust in institutions and perceptions of corruption.

DEMOGRAPHICS OF RESPONDENTS

REPRESENTED ALL REGIONS including Southwest, Northwest, Littoral, Centre, and diaspora.

AGE GROUPS
from under 18 to 55+ with majority 18-35.

DIVERSE PROFESSIONS:
students, public servants, entrepreneurs, farmers.

BALANCED GENDER REPRESENTATION.

NATIONAL IDENTITY AND UNITY

75%
OF RESPONDENTS
feel proud to be Cameroonian.

82%
SUPPORT
constitutional protection for all languages and cultures.

78%
AGREE
all regions should have equal voice in national affairs.

85% PREFER
dialogue as the way to end the Anglophone Crisis.

80%
SUPPORT
equal rights for Anglophones and Francophones.

GOVERNANCE AND POLITICAL REFORM

38%
ONLY
trust public institutions to be fair and transparent.

90%
SUPPORT
presidential term limits to avoid indefinite rule.

72%
FAVOR
parliament and courts as watchdogs over public officials.

88%
WANT
more direct citizen participation in governance.

83%
IDENTIFY
corruption as a serious national problem.

SOCIAL AND ECONOMIC PRIORITIES

TOP PRIORITIES:

JUSTICE, PEACE, DEVELOPMENT, EQUALITY, AND YOUTH EMPOWERMENT.

68%
SAY
poverty and unemployment are the biggest challenges.

70%
CALL FOR fair elections and strong institutions.

65%
FEEL
women are underrepresented in leadership roles.

KEY MESSAGES FOR REDEFINING CAMEROON

- Equal constitutional rights for all ethnic groups and regions.
- Federalism or balanced power-sharing as a path to unity.
- Strong independent judiciary and electoral bodies.
- Inclusive citizen engagement in governance.
- Decisive anti-corruption measures.

RECOMMENDATIONS FOR CONSTITUTIONAL DRAFTING

- Presidential term limits and transparent elections.
- Cultural and linguistic protections.
- Equal rights for Anglophones and Francophones.
- Regional autonomy with equal representation.
- Gender equality and youth inclusion.
- Anti-corruption frameworks.
- Inclusive constitution-making process.

CONCLUSION

CAMEROONIANS OVERWHELMINGLY DESIRE A NEW CHAPTER DEFINED BY JUSTICE, EQUALITY, PEACE, AND DEVELOPMENT.
THESE SURVEYS LAY THE GROUNDWORK FOR A CONSTITUTION THAT TRULY REFLECTS THE NATION'S HOPES AND REMEDIES ITS CHALLENGES.